Dr. Griswold's New Remedy for Fever and Ague, the principal complaint of a box of tea pills, which cure the disease at once, and a note of tonic which restores the appetite, invigorates the system, and prevents the attacks of fever, can be had from the principal dealers
in the city—LASSELL, MARSH & HUNN, No. 10
Gold-st. Wholesale Agents.

Col. John Charles Fremont's Life, including his Exploring Tours, Speeches and Correspondence, including the ONLY COMPLETE LIFE OF THE ROCKY MOUNTAIN HERO.

John Biglow, Esq., Editor of the New York Evening Post, makes a large 12mo. volume, and will be embellished with the only Steel Portrait that has been accepted by Col. Fremont and his friends as accurate beside several spirited Engravings,
and a full account of his life and services.

EXCITING SCENES IN HIS WONDERFUL CAREER, as Col. Fremont's opponents are continually asking "What has he done to merit the Presidency?" it behoves them to be well informed.

DON'T BE MISLED
BY A compilation of "Sketches from Fremont's Written," several of which are in market as "The Life of Fremont."

The ADDITIONAL ORIGINAL MATTER alone in our edition is more than the whole of the above.

LET IT BE PUBLICLY JUDGED BY COMPARISON,
Remember, and ask Biglow's Edition.
